Vocabulary
persecution	Treating people unfairly or cruelly because of who they are or what they believe.
monastery	A special place where monks or nuns live, work, and pray together.
clergy	The leaders in a church, such as priests, vicar, or bishops.
reformation	A big change made to make something better.
thesis	A list of ideas or points put forward to start a debate.
missionary	Someone sent on a journey to share their religious beliefs with people in other places.
denomination	A particular group or family within a religion (like Anglicans, Catholics, or Methodists).

Swallows Class: Autumn 2

RE: How and Why has Christian Practice Changed over Time?

Early Christianity

Early Christianity started as a branch of Judaism.

The Medieval Church.

The local church as the center of town life (baptisms, marriages, burials, education, care for the sick).

monastery

Even though different Christian denominations worship in slightly different ways, they share key beliefs about God.